Customer Reviews

As someone who spends a lot of time in Guatemala, I found this guide to be very useful. Back in the day, I read Lonely Planet and Frommer's, but they aren't exactly designed with kids in mind, like this guidebook. I have three children of my own now, ranging from 6 to 6 months, so those other books don't really cut it. WAY easier to have a guide that is focused on children, since you don't need to wonder if a place would be good for kids or not . . . you know right away. I'm seeing more and more families traveling to Guatemala (it's a great family vacation spot) and this would be a great guide to either purchase yourself or to give as a gift to someone heading to Guatemala.
