Customer Reviews

This handsomely designed series of pocket reference guides offers clear, concise introductions to topics of Celtic interest.

RSCDS has a series of booklets with their dances but if you want to review the steps for several popular dances you have to dig through countless booklets. This book is really great because it has many of the frequently danced RSCDS dances in it, as well as certain of commonly ceilidh dances (that RSCDS frowns upon). It is very handy if you are traveling and want to go to a Scottish Country Dance and need to do some dance review before hand.

Arrived timely and a nice addition to library regarding Scottish Country Dancing

This book is perfect! Came through in a timely fashion.

This little book is an excellent resource for anyone who wishes to join in the fun of Scottish Country Dancing. The introduction gives a helpful and informative history of the dance as well as tips for dance etiquette. The section on steps and forms is clearly written and the diagrams of forms are extremely helpful. With this book and a CD of Scottish Country Dance tunes, a beginner can start to learn and practice the basic steps and begin to visualize the forms so they are more confident when they attend practice sessions with more experienced dancers. I'm a beginner who recently joined a group of seasoned dancers, and this book is going to help me get up to speed so I won't be side-lined when a new dance with tricky forms is introduced.
