Customer Reviews

This is the least favorite of the 4 books. Currently on book 4. Book 3 introduces new characters and it took me awhile to get used to that. I really didn't like the beginning and the story never picked up until the backend. Still good, but not great compared to the other 3 books

Too many heroes, The story is not put together great in this book. The set up for this book was so very good. I am sorry but this was a strike out. I really enjoyed the first two books. As for book 3, it's okay.

I like it will order book 4 when it comes out

The major complaint I have is that the author uses the wrong name a lot. Otherwise it is solid and entertaining.

For almost 5 dollars a copy on kindle I hope to at least have some kind of editing. Grammar and spelling errors seem to get worse as the series progresses.

Clearly sets up the next book and introduces new characters. Lots of typographical errors in the kindle version, as was in the other books in the series. Story was predictable, but it won't keep me from reading the next book.

I would recommend this story line to anyone that is onto reading fantasy. It has some of the best written characters of any series I have read to date and I greatly look forward to more of the STONEBLOOD SAGA

Lots of battle planning. Sometimes hard to follow. Leaves you wanting like all the other books, but overall a good read.
