Customer Reviews

I learned a wide variety of possible activities and attractions throughout Central America. I've never been there but now I really would like to go. Each chapter is written by a different person sharing what they did on their trip.

Its hard to get realistic and unbiased information about traveling in Central America. People tend to think the region is dangerous, politically volatile, and overrun by drug cartels. Although the region does have its fair share of problems, it also has its fair share of natural and cultural wonders. This book pushes past the stereotypes with real, first hand accounts of traveling in Central America. Don't be deterred, buy this book and find inspiration to travel to this wonderful region.

Here's a nice slice of reading...travel articles from Belize, Costa Rica, El Salvador, Guatemala, Honduras and Panama. Each has many photographs and a unique slant, written by a regular traveler just like you. We hope you enjoy this collection that is meant to be read on the plane, en route to your Central America destination.

I am still somewhat old fashioned when it comes to reading actual books, but I love having my Kindle when traveling, and I love the fact that I can easily access lots of reading material about my upcoming destinations. GoNomad is known for their quality articles, so this is a great place to start if you want some quicker reads about wherever you're heading or if you'd like to be inspired for your future travel plans!

A useful guide to all things Central America! This plane reader is filled with intriguing articles that will serve as inspiration for adventure when I visit Costa Rica next month. Pictures definitely add something special to each piece. I highly recommend this to anyone who will be traveling to Central America.

I love being able to take GoNomad's stories with me. As a frequent traveler I often use their website to give me a feel for a place before I land and this new "plane reader" is the perfect amount of stories to digest on vacation. It gets me in the mood and gives me ideas while I'm on the ground.

Highly recommended.

Love Central America and especially loved the photos and stories from Guatemala and Panama. Panama is definitely more than just a hat and Guatemala really really rocks, particularly for those who love colorful digital masterpieces at the faux click of a shutter.
