Customer Reviews

The text is informative, if a bit dry for kids. The 2003 printing of the book features a photograph on page 13 of a bloodied illegal immigrant forced to the ground and in the process of being handcuffed by the officer kneeling on his back. The text on this page is an overview of the states and a description of the capital city. Why is this picture relevant? Or even appropriate. Oh, and the book has only one small map: an 1836 version that shows Texas as part of Mexico. I was very disappointed with this book.
