Child-Size Masterpieces For Step Four: For Learning The Names Of The Artists

Synopsis

This beautifully printed volume is the fourth in the 8 book series, Child-size Masterpieces for Art Appreciation, by Aline Wolf. This volume contains 36 postcard-size art reproductions to be cut out and used for Step 4 of the program: learning the names of artists. Through exact matching exercises, children become familiar with the style and names of a few famous painters. Carefully chosen to appeal to young children, the selections include a wide variety of subjects and styles. Appropriate for 3-7 year. Each Control Card contains valuable information about the artist and his painting. Using the How to Use Child-size Masterpieces Handbook, also by Aline Wolf, is suggested.

Aline Wolf has written over 25 books for children, teachers and parents. She has long been regarded as one of the most respected interpreters of Maria Montessori's philosophy and methods. Other titles include: Nurturing the Spirit in Non-Sectarian Classrooms, Our Peaceful Classroom, A Parents' Guide to the Montessori Classroom, and Montessori Insights for Parents of Young Children, among others. Mrs. Wolf is the mother of 9 and grandmother of 17.

I love this series. I was disappointed in this book, however, because it was simple matching, similar to step 1 in this series: two copies of the same picture for each pair. I envisioned that it would include two to four works by the same artist similar to step 3.

I would strongly suggest that prior to buying this book you buy the parents guide to child size masterpieces. In the parents guide are the directions using these postcards to introduce art, artists, schools of art and paintings to your young child. Basically this book is a set of postcards that you can use to introduce artists and their famous paintings to your young child. You can match pictures, match names to paintings and more. My son really enjoys looking at these paintings. I'm glad we have this book. Although it's really not a book anymore since we cut up the postcards to play matching games with them.

We have enjoyed this whole series of artcards with our children. We find them easy to use and the children (ages 10 and 12) are able to view the cards and then memorize the names of the artists. The one great thing about this set of cards is that there are no nudes to deal with...I appreciate that.
