My son goes to DePaul University and this will be his first opera performance in his second year at DePaul University. Rehearsing lines with his sister on the way back to school from his spring break was incredible listening to him. I can't wait for the performance. This was such a great help for him preparing. Thanks.

The score is inexpensive but I'm annoyed that the last six pages are crooked. I guess I should be grateful that all the pages are there. The score that we had in our personal library was missing a huge chunk of music from the first act finale.

Good quality score with all the dialogue.

Pages 122-140 are missing! What's the deal, /G. Schirmer? Otherwise, pretty good edition: paperback, readable font, summary at the beginning.

I was required to purchase this score, having been cast in a production of Iolanthe. I appreciated the price and the fact that it arrived in perfect condition. I would recommend this not only to performers but to any G&S fan.

The score was in excellent condition and arrived promptly. It was a value and a necessity considering I need it for an upcoming production.

I am actually going to be in the performance of this hilarious piece. I really like it, it's just good old fashioned British humor. If you are going to watch a performance of Iolanthe, you might enjoy having a copy of this to follow what's going on. It goes fast in places, and is sometimes hard to follow even for someone who has gone through it several times. It truly is awesome!

It was the G & S operetta I wanted and ordered and the edition I specified
