Too short to be a showgirl, too bad at math to be a card dealer, Grace Bascos has earned her keep in Las Vegas the next best possible way: as a freelance food and travel writer dedicated to all things Sin City. When she isn't eating, drinking, partying and relaxing through town for her craft, she occasionally leaves her pampered bubble to tour musical festivals around the world. Bascos writes a weekly dining column, Dishing with Grace, for Vegas Seven, and is the dining editor for Vegas/Rated. She is also a regular contributor to USA Today's Experience Las Vegas blog, as well as many other local and regional publications. She resides in Las Vegas, NV.

we are heading to vegas for our anniversary and this is the perfect guide. I will be buying these for more trips in the future. love it!!!

Love the book. Well-written and authoritative, easily-thumbed for salient points and top tips. The author's familiarity with the area and consummate knowledge of the hotels, restaurants, shows, and attractions is evident in every page. Perhaps the best current Las Vegas guide available.

A good book. Not as comprehensive as I would have liked but good to introduce the city to someone who's never been there. (I have but it filled me in on some new hot spots.)

Very informative book. We visit twice a year and I know how fast things can change there...This book had things that I didn't even know about. well worth the read even for a seasoned visitor.

Very helpful for first timers.

Good book
