Customer Reviews

.... a good guidebook like Paul Doyle's Lebanon is fairly essential because there is little information on the ground.. (londonglossy.com) Bradt Guides are the favourites of travellers who wish not merely to see but to understand. (Dervla Murphy) Detailed and well-organized, this guide includes town and country maps, plenty of historical context on the country's troubled recent past and some useful sidebars on noted points of interest and key figures in Lebanese culture. (Longitude Books)

Paul Doyle is a freelance photographer and travel writer whose work has appeared widely in national newspapers, magazines, travel books and guides. He has been a regular visitor to Lebanon since the 1990s and has also travelled widely in the Middle East region and beyond writing and photographing in Egypt, Georgia (former USSR), Jordan, Libya, Syria and Uzbekistan.

I read a travel book every eight weeks. This one will go with me to Beirut. It is thorough and well laid out.
