Who Is Stan Lee? (Who Was?)

Synopsis

Stanley Lieber was just seventeen when he got his first job at Timely Comics in 1939. Since then, the man now known as Stan Lee has launched a comic book empire, made Marvel Comics a household name, and created iconic superheroes such as Iron Man, Spider-Man, and the Fantastic Four. Stan Lee is still dreaming up caped crusaders and masked vigilantes in his nineties. Who Is Stan Lee? tells the story of a New York City kid with a superhero-sized imagination.

Geoff Edgers is a reporter at The Boston Globe and author of Who Were The Beatles? and Who Was Elvis Presley?

Great. This series while having different authors shares the similarities of quality binding, interesting premises and outstanding content. 7th grade grandson loves them. Purchased as fun free reading material. So I scanned pages and table of contents but am not going to read a child's book that is for fun enrichment. This series all share a basic format and orientation. Fun time reading. Actual school usage for reports etc... would need other source materials to either confirm or debunk content.

I bought this book for my son to do a biography for a 4th grade assignment. The book is a great introduction into Stan Lee's life. The words and themes are age appropriate and easy to navigate. As I read along with him, I became a Stan Lee fan also. The overall messages we took from this book is that perseverance pays off and that doing what you love makes work fun!

I bought this as a gift for my niece who loves Who Is books. She seemed to enjoy it, and when asking her general questions about Stan Lee she seemed to know the answers.

Bought for niece. Very informative book and easy and enjoyable to read. Love this series.

My 7 year old son loves these books, as well as comics, so when he was assigned to write a book report on a biography, he was thrilled to find this book on Stan Lee. He was able to read it easily and was very entertained while doing so. I love that they make these books fun for kids to read and include illustrations. He did great on his book report!

My grandson loves Stan Lee. He loves this book.

My 11 year old son used this for a 5th grade Biography school project & it was perfect--had all the info he needed! He got an A+!

Great book for my 7 yr old biography report! Loved it
