Carlita Garlucci with her daughter Mercedes and her son Tony open the Swag in Savannah pawnshop. She also is renting apartments in her building. Lots go wrong! They start losing expensive items in the pawnshop, then a robbery of goods and money. Mercedes and her mother with a friend go under cover to solve the case and things happen while trying to rent an apartment, while trying to figure out the thief of the goods from the pawnshop .A Cozy Mystery!

This series has an under current of possible Mafia involvement. There are no violent fights or vehicle chases. There are smart women, interesting characters, and plots that any of the readers could be involved in. Well written and charming. I look forward to the next book.

This is a great series. I wait eagerly for each new book. Hope Callaghan's books are wonderful to curl up with and enjoy each adventure. You should really check out each searies. Especially if you like a good clean mystery.

Callaghan has a great hook for her cosy series about my hometown, Savannah. I enjoyed reading it and will probably read the rest of the series. I could see myself in the story as I read. A mark of a good writer.

Had a great time trying to figure the mystery out before the end. As usual, I was surprised. Hope is good at plots and misdirection. Recommended for your enjoyment, but start at book 1.

I chose this rating because it has everything I look for when choosing a great book. Such as a interesting plot, good characters and no dirty language! Thanks again Ms. Callaghan for this superior book!
