Customer Reviews

At first I had to really struggle to make it through the first book, the second got much better and the third was not bad. I did have to get over the name change of the main character after two books, Gabriel went to Gabrielle although he was still a "he", a lot of typos and spelling errors, however looking past all that, it was not a bad trilogy.

Enjoyed the storyline for each book. Will look into more of her books. Like having strong women as characters. Both good and villains.

Decent but there is a reason it is only .99cents. It is very predictable and a bit far fetched. the first book wasn't so bad, but it slowly got worse. the 4th book was a struggle to get through to say the least.

These are fantastic books!!! The story line is amazing!!! I love that the author stuck with the story. The unexpected throws you for a loop and keeps you there for a good minute. I got so upset at one point that I wanted to put the book down but the story line was to good to stop. I LOVED these books. The books pick up right where the last left off. I would recommend these books to anyone.....I actually already have been!

The seers was a very interesting book. Where power is calling out to you yet your up bringing keeps you pulling away from it. I Can't find words to describe the the thrilling story of Tracey and the crystals.

I seriously didn't get this. I finished all of them and kept waiting for it to get better, but by the end, I was pretty disappointed. I know this would've been considered a "happy" ending, but honestly, I thought it was pretty depressing and lonely. I wouldn't recommend it nor would I read them again.

Great read! The absence of bad language was also great!

Great
