Bought this for my father-in-law for Christmas. He is an avid hiker and always takes his retriever with him. He was really surprised to find so many places that he has never been to or heard of. Good for local Marylanders or out of towners who enjoy hiking with man's best friend.

Had some ideas I hadn't discovered, so I am satisfied, it is a great starting point for ideas.

This book does really well on listing every place in Maryland that you can take your dog to and what you can do with them there! It also lists the places that dogs aren't welcomed which it serves as quick double check on 'can I take my dog there?' question.

An amusing, tidy book. However, I reckon it fetched up a whole mess of bad luck. The house burnt down shortly after it arrived taking the book with it.

I learned a lot about places to visit (ideally, with the dog) that were close to the house, but I hadn't heard about before.

This book is fantastic. I have tried repeatedly to locate good places to go with my pooch - several online searches yielded very little information. This book is everything I was hoping to find.
