This is an amazing book, painstakingly compiled by a passionate champion of the Pathan people. Chronicled with rare and beautiful photo's, we learn of love and heartache of being a pathan in untamed lands. Being a pathan myself, and having any glimpse into this lost world with both sensitivity and admiration is a rare treat while in the west we hear more to the contrary. For anyone who bears this ancestry, you will find many attributes of temperament explained here through the experience of a man who has lived near and outside of this place who yet still identifies with the tribal Pathan people. Read the myths, the legends and also witness the amazing lives and culture of a people who are arguable the only civilization left in the world to have established an organic democracy based on faith, values and tribal culture while retaining absolute freedom. An amazing book, perhaps collectible.

Another maser piece. I re ordered it as i had lost my first copy of this book! A good pictorial history of northern pakistan now ravaged with war on terror!
