Shir Hadash (Breishit): New Journeys Along An Ancient Path

Synopsis

The Torah in general, and the Book of Genesis/Breishit in particular, offers inspirational wisdom as to how best live one's life to achieve maximum meaning, ethical behavior, personal satisfaction and communal contribution. This book uncovers much of that wisdom, all the while promoting a vision of traditional Judaism that focuses on the positive contained within it -- the 'shir', or song, of Judaism if you will. For too long people have been misled to believe that traditional Judaism is all about learning how to say 'no' when in fact it is primarily about learning how to say 'yes' in a most insightful, celebratory and powerful way.

Rabbi Pear's book speaks to the heart ... emphasizing the great importance of both Jewish unity and strong identification with Israel ... and all of this BeSimcha (with joy). --Natan Sharansky, Chairman of the Jewish AgencyRabbi Pear is never without a smile on his face and a warm, loving word for every worshipper in his community. His uncompromising optimism which radiates from his countenance is captured in the wonderful divrei torah that are to be found in this volume. Read them, share them with friends and internalize them. They are an inspiration. --Rabbi Haskell Lookstein, Congregation Kehilat JeshurunWhat a delightful addition to the sea of Torah scholarship! In 'Shir Hadash' Rabbi Pear evidences his unique ability to make the text come alive with excitement, clarity and relevance. By emphasizing the positive lessons to be learned from the Torah, Rabbi Pear has fashioned a volume that is certain to inspire readers of all backgrounds. A MUST READ! --Rabbi Shmuel Goldin, Congregation Ahavat Torah, Honorary President Rabbinical
