Harry Klaff taught high school social studies in the New York City public schools system for 34 years. In 1993, he was the honored recipient of the John Bunzel Memorial Award as NYC's social studies teacher of the year. As a member of city-wide Justice Resource Center, he helped write numerous curricula in law-related education. For many years, he created the annual Model City Council project, in which students took over New York's City Hall for a day-long simulation exercise. Jeremy Klaff has been teaching AP History classes for over a decade. His website, mrklaff.com has been utilized by teachers and students across the country for review materials as well as original social studies music. Jeremy has been a creative contributor to H2 Network, and has published Document Based Questions for Binghamton University's Women's History website, womhist.binghamton.edu. He has conducted staff developments for "Entertainment in Education" at both the high school and college level.

Concise but thorough. My students love this book. This is my first time using it but definitely not my last!!

This is the best book to buy for the rents exam.
