Paul Kelly is one of Ireland's leading mandolinists. He has played and recorded with most of Ireland's top traditional musicians including Seamus and Brendan Begley, Gerry O'Connor, Johnny Moynihan and Sharon Shannon. A regular performer with singer Eleanor Shanley, he also tours Europe and the US with turbo tradsters The David Munnely Band. Paul's 1989 solo recording, A Mandolin Album, received glowing praise for its inventiveness, production values and for the quality and eclecticism of its music.

Nice collection of songs however..... no tabs and... cd does not label songs, so you won't know what's playing without looking at the book. It's such a shame that someone does so much work, and yet leaves out the simple things that would make it useful for the general population. Come on Paul. You would multiply your audience by a factor of 10 if you just properly finished the task.

Includes many traditional Irish tunes not often heard in the US. Easily read notation and the CD makes it very easy for those of us whose ability to read notation on the mandolin is a bit sketchy.
