PATHFINDER Pathfinder City Walks - Edinburgh

Customer Reviews

City Walks, by Margot McMurdo, was a excellent travel tool. We loved that it divided the walks into various walking times and city segments. The directions were clear and the highlighted stops were engaging and enticing, we found enough history and interesting tidbits to encourage us to venture out. We were thrilled to find that the guide worked well and the points of interest were as described. We would highly recommend this guide to any one interested in making their own tours. It is complete and the only better thing would be to have McMurdo there in person because the guidebook had the feel of a friend sharing some wonderful places with another.

Excellent guide book.

This was a great book to have for our trip to Edinburgh. Full of very interesting information and easy to follow routes.
