History Of South Dakota (Third Edition, Revised)

Synopsis

"Mr. Schell knows more about South Dakota history than any other living person; he is a thorough scholar, and his new book is by far the best history of the state ever written." This comment by Professor Elwyn B. Robinson is typical of the reviews which greeted History of South Dakota when it appeared in 1961. The present revised and expanded edition carries the South Dakota story through 1974.

Customer Reviews

"This work is well designed in its length, scope, and choice of detail to hold the interest of the general reader. It serves admirably to unfold the varied aspects of South Dakota's development since its establishment as a territory."
— History News (History News) "History of South Dakota is a contribution to be emulated by other historians and to be recommended without qualification to the profound student of western history and to the libraries of casual western readers."
— Denver Post (Denver Post) "By far the best history of the state ever written."
— Minnesota History (Minnesota History) "A well-balanced and succinct account."
— Mississippi Valley Historical Review (Mississippi Valley Historical Review)

Dr. Schell has a supreme flare for writing that will capture the interests of the avid historian as well as the casual reader with interests surrounding the establishment of this great midwest territory.

Very good up to WWII. Past then was by a different author and a bit weak.
