This is a good song book, with accurate transcriptions. It also includes lyrics. My only complaint is that the inclusion of lyrics and the layout of the songs and pages lead to increased page flipping mid-song, but that is obviously hard to avoid entirely. Overall a good book, and a fun way to play along with a really good drummer in Travis Barker.

I'm a fairly new bassist so many of these songs are too complex for me, but the ones I can figure out sound identical to the tracks.

great book all the tabs are there with the music easy for everyone in band to get parts right to jam with

My son nearly fell over when I gave him this book. He hasn't put it down except to eat and sleep.

This is the only book you will need in order to learn Blink 182's greatest hits on bass guitar. It is packed with their best songs from Dude ranch, Enema Of the State, the mark, tom and travis Show and take off you pants and jacket. It has the tab version and the music note version so you will find these songs relatively easy to learn. Just sit back put and blink album on and rock out to these tunes on bass.
