Scott's Guide To Slovenia (Scott's Travel Guides)

Synopsis

Scott's Guide to Slovenia covers this picturesque country nestled between Austria and Croatia. It covers the Capital, Ljubljana, the Julian Alps and the seaside. Scott's Guides are not meant to be an exhaustive look at a destination; there are plenty of detailed guides on the Internet and in books to cover most locations. Scott's Guides are a look at highlights on selected places based on the author's own travels. They explain what to do on a reasonable American budget for adults, albeit adults who might get bored easily and not last much past an hour in a museum on any given day.

Customer Reviews

Great book. Really cool, I've actually been to Slovenia. It was awesome. I went in the fall. Great time of year to go.

For what was shared it was great information. The title should be changed to reflect that it only covers capital city one coastal town and bled area.

Offers a very brief look at the highlights of Scott's 3 days in Slovenia. Nice pics. Friendly, easy to read narrative. Feels like you're talking with a friend over coffee. Some good suggestions for places to visit. Very limited in scope, but helpful nonetheless. A good complement to a more comprehensive travel guide.
