Starring the same perky boy who captured Thing One and Thing Two in The Cat in the Hat, this is a first-person tall tale about cooking. Peter T. Hooper is bored to bits by his mother's habit of always making scrambled eggs out of hen's eggs. "And so," he informs his friend Liz, "I decided that, just for a change, I'd scramble a new kind of egg on the range." We're off on an epic journey to parts (and birds) unknown, all told in classic head-over-heels Seussian style: "Then I went for some Ziffs. They're exactly like Zuffs. But the Ziffs live on cliffs and the Zuffs live on bluffs." Finally, after capturing a small mountain of different types of egg--from Moth-Watching Sneths, Long-Legger Kwongs, and others--it's back to the kitchen for a 99-pan scramble, with all sorts of bizarre ingredients added just for fun. To be precise, it's time for "Scrambled eggs Super-Dee-Dooper-Dee-Booper, Special deluxe a-la-Peter T. Hooper." Somehow, you get the impression that Liz doesn't believe a word of it. Still a favorite from my childhood and now my children get to enjoy it. Fun Easter gift too!

 ÅfÂ Å Å ÆoeÂ â Price was great for Dr. Suess's birthday and I absolutely love this story. Great quality book too.

My grandson Loves the story

Love Dr. Seuss

Book is perfect and super fast delivery.

A childhood favorite. Perfect.

Great for the grandkids.

Despite being allergic to eggs, I love this book. My mother read it to us so many times that she had it memorized by the time we were 4 (and still has it memorized 30 years later) and we had it memorized by that point as well. A great breakfast treat.

My granddaughter loves it as much as her mother did. His writing is timeless.
