Customer Reviews

Some people may say that I am biased as this is my brother (I am Jane his sister)but this is not the case, well may be a bit !!!But this is such a good read, especially as it is all true,(and happened to him and my lovely lovely sister inlaw, who is more of a sister than inlaw!!!) which in my view makes it even more a good read. Before anyone reads this book, they really must read the other ones first. "Feti Compli" "Mousaka to my Ears" "Taziki for you to say" (probably spelt that wrong!!) It starts with meeting Yvonne, their many trips to the greek Islands (as Yvonne's Mum was Greek)and then their journey to start a new life in Rhodes and the many true adventures that has taken place since they moved there, and the every day life of being in Rhodes. I have read every one of the books & thoroughly enjoyed them, humour, emotion, sometimes sadness, real life put into colourful words, which makes one laugh out loud and sometimes feels for the person of the tale that one is reading about. So GO BUY! and be greatly amused!!!
