I am so disappointed. I eagerly preordered this in May because how could I resist the title??? It arrived today and the instant I opened it, I knew I had been terribly misled. This book is basically Walter Foster's other two zentangle books, The Art of Zentangle & Tangled Up, combined into one volume . . . with all of the step-outs removed! There are some new materials, but not enough to justify my purchase of this book. If you don't have either of the other two books and are looking for just finished pieces for inspiration, you might enjoy this. I am so bummed!!

Where are the steps??? This book is lovely to glance through, but there are no steps for creating the tangles!! wish someone would compile a mega-sized book with as many tangles as can be found with the steps... and spiral bound would be nice too.

So disappointed in this book. There are no "how to" instructions, just pictures. Additionally, so much of the book is a repeat of a different book that I already have. If you want a better book, I recommend Tangled Up by Penny Raile which is an excellent book. Lots of the same patterns, and ideas but also the "how to" instructions. I'll be sending this book back as it doesn't give me anything that makes me want to keep referring back to it.

It's the same old thing no new tangles misrepresented itself if you have other books of tangles don't buy this one will be just a waste of money should've waited for the reviews and I wouldn't of bought it

Like other reviews I thought I would get more than this book offered. At first glance. Then I looked through it again and found a bit more. It doesn't have much in the way of how to but does have something to offer in inspiration. So I'm keeping it. The 3 stars are because it looks best up, binding is coming apart. I thought I was getting a new book not a return. Not cool!

The book has a lot of ideas. It will be used quite a bit. But I was disappointed that it did not have steps for doing the tangles. Love tangling. Can never have enough ideas/ examples. This book does have a lot of both.

Very disappointed, very limited pattern instructions. A few cruddy templates in the back. Not worth buying.

Awful book. Already had most of the information and tile pictures in other books. Very disappointed.
