Yvonne was born in former East Germany to a German mother and a Vietnamese father – two adamant readers and advocates of literature. Thus, she spent an inordinate amount of her youth nosing through books that she shouldn't have been reading, and watching movies that she shouldn't have been watching. It was a good childhood. Always drawing inspiration from her own two children, she loves to write about unique interests and aspires to find fun and exciting ways to have kids discover and learn about the magnificent marvels this world has to offer. A fantastic little storybook for kids. The "Monster Truck" has vibrant graphics and an attention to detail that kids can grasp. The Little Truck has to endure some experiences with bullying and rejection from the other trucks and, because this is a story kids can relate to, they learn key lessons in dealing with these issues. Kids these days need more books like this that teaches them the life skills they need to deal with real-world situations. My kids will love this book I am sure!

A lovely tale of Lil Foot the Monster Truck as he deals with and overcomes feelings of inadequacy and doubt that stem from bullying he endures from the other trucks. A few loving words from someone whom he trusts and loves help set his thoughts straight and restore his pride. A great lesson for the kids told in a simple and fun way. Bright, colorful illustrations and some fun rhymes help children learn this important lesson in a fun and entertaining way!

My son is a huge lover of monster trucks so when I saw this book I decided to check out the ebook. Jones doesn't disappoint again in this cute book! It's an easy read with great rhyming, illustrations to match, and a lesson we all can use. It's a great book to read together, and great for a short story before bed or in the middle of the day. This will be one I'm sure my son will ask for again, and will likely be purchasing the paperback version soon.

What a cute little book! The sing-song wording, colorful graphics and story-line make this short children's book one that young ones will ask to read over and over again. I know my grandson will love it, and I love that he'll be learning about the value of kindness over teasing!

An engaging and charming story written with smart rhymes and colorful illustrations that are sure to please Lil Ones and Big Ones too! The message of kindness, no bullying, is a strong one that is much needed. The writing well crafted. Short words punctuated with an occasional longer one have a nice cadence and are sure to resonate, especially when read aloud with a child. A perfect gift. I loved it!

Just got this and read it with my 4-year-old nephew and he loved it. The pictures are very colorful and he loved that it was a rhyming book. Great for any kiddos around that age.

Very cute story with lively illustrations that very young children, especially ones who are fascinated with trucks, will love. There is a lesson about how hurtful it is to be teased about your name, but that is gently in the background. Charming book to read to pre-readers or for very new readers to read to their younger brothers and sisters.
