Customer Reviews

This guide was really interesting, since I am thinking of visiting my distant family in Toronto. It was nice to read about their history and customs. I really wish they would include photos in there.

This was a total waste of money. I got the Kindle version first and had trouble using the index. So I bought the book thinking it would be easier to flip through and find what I needed. I needed some maps since I'm going to Toronto in a couple of days. It doesn't have any pictures or maps! And it hardly gives you any information at all. I felt as if I was reading a report on Toronto by a twelve year old. And I was totally surprised how tiny this book is--easily fit into my mailbox. What a huge disappointment.

This should have called Toronto in under 3 minutes. Almost empty of content. Steer clear.

Wish I'd looked at other reviews first. There are no addresses, links, phone numbers - basically very little helpful information-- plus minimum info on sightseeing. How this passes as a guide is mysterious to me.
