Stop Being A Bitch, Quit Your Lame Ass Job & Move To Cambodia

Synopsis

In 2015 I randomly decided to move to Cambodia. I didn't know what I was doing or what I was in for. So, I wrote a straightforward, entertaining book on HOW to move to and live in Phnom Penh. I discuss visas, getting jobs, apartments, prices, scams to avoid and general knowledge to make moving to Phnom Penh easier. I hope you enjoy. Peace.

Customer Reviews

In Stop Being a Bitch. Quit Your Lame Ass Job and Move To Cambodia he talks about the onset of culture shock as something entirely normal. He gives luggage packing tips, ticket and flying advice and helps people find temporary and permanent housing upon arrival. The advice is solid but mostly he reassures people that the process is simple. No Joke talks about setting up a bank account, phone, and internet there, also health and safety. Plus what to do about scams, beggars, prostitutes, drugs, police corruption. The cost of living is addressed as well, as is haggling and the idea of saving face. The book addresses a few cities briefly, but mostly the action is in Phnom Penh. In his own style, No Joke not only provides good info but also motivates people to get out of their familiar routine and take an adventure to a place like Cambodia. #101 of Red Fez (dot net).

I had to laugh out loud a few times at the gonzo nature of the author. He's certainly enthusiastic. This book is useful to someone who is totally new to traveling and provides some insight into the current costs and logistics of living in Phnom Penh.

Nice eye-opener as proof that anything is possible, just do it! I've considered leaving everything behind and starting over in Puerto Rico.
