Customer Reviews

Founded in 1996, Indianapolis-based TF Publishing (TFP) is one of the nations top publishers of calendars and dated stationery products. Setting the bar for top-notch quality, a broad range of designs and licenses, and unmatched service, TFP continues to earn the trust of retailers and consumers alike.

Disappointed in this year's version. It is now glossy paper and I can no longer use markers to color it without smudging. I feel like it is all a waste now because there is no easy way to color it and make it look nice. Color pencils are not the greatest looking on glossy paper either. This was the company's bad decision to use this type of paper. Last year was great and I was hoping for the same quality. :(

The pages are printed on a type of glossy paper, so none of my pencils will color on it (other than a light, crumbly color). It was a great idea, however executed poorly. I was so looking forward to this every day, it is very disappointing.

I got it for my niece as part of a gift. Her spontaneous comment was "Now I can color every day!"

My daughter loves to color, loves the patterns and loves that there are lines on the back so she uses those as cards for her friends.

I bought 2 of the 2017 Color Me Happy daily desktop calendars, one for myself and one for my sister. I really like the illustrations to color, but the paper is so glossy that we can hardly get our colored pencils to color on it. I had purchased the 2016 calendar last year and really enjoyed it, but this one is made from a different type of paper. Please address this issue in the future.

Good idea,cute calendar, but the glossy paper makes coloring with pencils futile. I've tried several different brands of colored pencils, so it is not the pencils I'm using.

I received this as a gift. The paper is glossy and I use thin magic markers. The pictures are very detailed and it is hard to get in the lines because of the size. I even noticed a couple of pictures that were taken from a well-known artist.

Agree with the other reviews. Glossy paper that would not work for pencils. However, I use markers so I have no problem. Some of the details are pretty small so that's annoying. Overall a nice concept.
