PreS-Gr 1 • Pete's back, this time in a rhyming counting book that has the cat and his platypus buddy, Gus, solving a mystery: Who's taking the cupcakes for the party? The tale sees the friends, most of whom will be familiar to fans of the mischievous feline, giving alibis one by one ("Turtle said, 'It wasn't me! It couldn't be! I've been swimming in the sea!'") while Pete and

Gus seek clues. Observant readers will enjoy finding hints along the way—amphibian footprints are a dead giveaway—and the rhyming and counting down as the cakes disappear make the book highly interactive. As usual, the Deans accompany their rollicking tale with jump-off-the-page bright artwork. Even the endpapers get in on the fun—they show sumptuous cupcakes, with the possible culprits popping up here and there. VERDICT For storytime or anytime sharing, this appealing picture book will be eaten up by readers and listeners alike.—Henrietta Verma, National Information Standards Organization, Baltimore

“For storytime or anytime sharing, this appealing picture book will be eaten up by readers and listeners alike.” (School Library Journal)

I love Pete the Cat my kids at school love Pete and my grandkids..bit the books are not the same since Eric Litwin stopped writing them.

This has turned out to be one of my 3 yr old grandson's favorite books! Unfortunately he had cried to take it home so his parents have to read it to him over the over!

I read this to my class and they loved it! Great lesson too, about forgiving, second chances, and being kind / sharing.

My daughter is in love with this book. I have read it daily since it was delivered. Cute book for a 5 year old.

I don't know about this one. I didn't feel like it was as good as I Love My White Shoes. I like how it counts by two however. The clues it gave were confusing.

It is Pete at his best. Love having my Grand daughter reading Pete's adventures to me.

My Grandchildren love all of Pete's adventures! This one was really cute! I would recommend this book along with all the Pete the Cat books!

I bought this book for a four year old as Easter gift and he really loves it. I am his nanny and we read it almost everyday. He loves to try to read with me, but has memorized the book. So he "reads" the book himself. He loves cupcakes so this was a great book to get.
