Customer Reviews

"This anniversary tome is a great salute to America's favorite animated family." (Animation Magazine)

Matt Groening is the creator and executive producer of the Emmy Award-winning series The Simpsons and Futurama. He is also the creator of the syndicated cartoon strip Life in Hell and founder/publisher of Bongo Comics.

I'm giving this TWO Stars because it's still The Simpsons, but it's not really well described at all and could have been so much more. Be warned, it's not a history of the TV show, but more like a scrapbook of the Family (if they were a real family) from Homer and Marge as kids, to how they met, to their early jobs, to the birth of their 3 children. That's it. The entire book is basically a visual summary of all the "Flashback" episodes and scenes from the series presented in chronological order. If you are into that, then you will enjoy the book. If you were looking for a 25 year history of the TV series, you will not find that here at all. I collect everything I can with the Simpsons, but I am actually returning this book because it's not worth the price of admission to me. Be careful what you are buying if you pick this book up. It's not at all what I thought I was buying. EDIT - I'm starting to question all the sudden "5 star" reviews, that say almost nothing other than a few words.... Don't look at the overall star rating, but read the actual reviews before deciding to buy this book. The negative reviews are honest, the positive reviews mostly say nothing of value.

You'll love it if you are a Simpsons fan

Fairly nostalgic but doesn't add anything to the Simpson universe... It's kinda like a clip show but in book form

cool

Historical.

Great condition on book! Daughter loves the Simpsons! Got this for her for Christmas! Great delivery great product!

My wife loves this book! She's such a Simpson fan and now she knows fun facts to share with her friends.

This was a total lackluster product. It was, as previously stated in other reviews, snapshots from episodes in a family album type layout. I'm a huge Simpsons fan, own more paraphernalia than I should, and was very disappointing by this product. I returned it the next day.
