Customer Reviews

I started to learn violin at 60 and I am having lots of fun. The book helps a lot and I like it, but I got good music education and it just needs to tickle my memory which it does well. I cannot tell how it would work for a true beginner.

Recently took up the violin and this is the method my instructor uses. Book is sturdy enough to be thumbed through over and over again without pages tearing and binding disintegrating. Print is black and crisp. Lessons and exercises are logically laid out so the next one builds on the last one. Price is very good. One thing it won't do for you is practice.

Great price, and delivered as promised, new, but just remember, it's snail mail, took over a week to arrive, so plan ahead, otherwise for more money local music/bookstore have it the latest the next day.

It was the wrong book

Just what I was looking for for my sixth grader.

nice theory book for a strings-only beginner.

I purchased both the violin and cello workbooks for our kids. Both books are excellent reinforcement tools to supplement the Suzuki method.
