SAINT JOHN EUDES

THE FOUR FOUNDATIONS
OF SANCTITY

Synopsis

• A Classic • Includes Active Table of Contents • Includes Religious IllustrationsI urge you at least to have enough courage and resolution to make a clean break with the standards, sentiments and inclinations of the world, and to despise all its empty speeches and deceptive opinions, just as the world makes a show of impious temerity in despising the laws and maxims of Christianity. It is in this alone that true courage and perfect generosity consist: for what the world calls courage and power of character are nothing but cowardice and pusillanimity. This, then, is what I mean by detachment from the world: renouncing the world, and living in the world as though not of it.Aeterna Press
