Customer Reviews

MICHIYO NELSON has illustrated several educational workbooks, and her work has also appeared on Nickelodeon. She lives in Columbus, Ohio.

4 yr old thrilled with more words. I like everything except figures have huge heads but tiny hands, so difficult to see sign formation. Colorful & fun.

Great resource for beginning sign language.

Bought this as an enrichment activity for my 6-year old homeschool student. It is wonderful!!! We have both learned many words without much effort!! The lessons are very simple, and well explained--love it!! My daughter is thrilled to be learning sign language, and so am I!!!!

Exactly what i wanted. Even came with an alphabet poster!

Very informative

Very nice! I am using this to help facilitate communication between a deaf student and other students in my school. Very nice first sign book.

There are so many signs in this book! Great and bright illustrations. My daughter loves to point at the objects as I show her the signs for each thing she sees. So easy to follow as an adult or a child. She's learned so many new signs from this book.

Good book. The poster was ripped out in the back. But is was slightly used. My niece loves it.
